SCHEDULE A VISITATION
JUDGE CARMEN E. BOSCH
(revised effective June 1, 2010)

1. Weekends: alternating weekends from Friday at 6pm until Sunday at 6 pm.

2. Weekdays: every Wednesday from the release of school for the day until 8 am Thursday, for children attending organized school or daycare/ every Wednesday from 5pm until 5pm Thursday, for children not attending organized school or daycare.

3. Telephone: the noncustodial parent shall have telephone contact which shall begin at 7:30 pm every evening that the child(ren) are not in his/her care, to last no longer than 30 minutes.

4. Holidays: in odd-numbered years, the mother shall enjoy visitation on Martin Luther King day, Good Friday, Memorial Day, Labor Day, and from 6pm the day school is dismissed for Christmas vacation until 2pm on Christmas Day; in those odd-numbered years, the father shall enjoy visitation on Mardi Gras, Easter, July 4, Thanksgiving, and from 2pm on Christmas Day until 6pm the evening prior to school resuming from Christmas vacation. In even-numbered years, the schedules are reversed.

(a) a holiday falling on a weekend shall be spent with the parent awarded said holiday. The remainder of the weekend shall be spent with the parent who would normally have that weekend. This time DOES NOT have to be made up.

(b) Mother's Day and Father's Day are to be spent with the appropriate parent. Said visitation shall occur from 9am until 6pm, or as agreed upon by the parties.

(c) Other days of special meaning, such as religious holidays, etc shall be decided together, written down and alternated between the parties.

(d) Hours for parents who cannot agree shall be: Martin Luther King Day (6pm the prior day through 6pm MLK day); Mardi Gras (6pm the prior day through 6pm Mardi Gras); Good Friday (9am until 9am the next day); Easter (9am until 6pm); Memorial Day (6pm the prior day through 6pm Memorial Day); July 4 (9am until 9am the next day); Labor Day (6pm the prior day through 6pm Labor Day); and Thanksgiving Day (9am until 9am the next day).

5. Birthdays: The child(ren) shall celebrate his/her birthday in the home of the custodial parent, unless it falls on a visitation day designated for the noncustodial parent, in which case it will be celebrated in the home of the noncustodial parent.

6. Waiting: The parties have no duty to await the beginning of visitation times for more than forty-five (45) minutes. A parent appearing later than said waiting period forfeits his/her time with the child(ren), absent agreement of the parties.

7. Cancellations: Any cancellation of a visitation period shall be subject to twenty-four (24) hours' notice to the other party, and shall be made up. Any make-up time must occur within three (3) months' time of the missed visitation period.

8. Vacations: The school spring break shall be divided equally, with one party to have visitation from 6pm the day school is released until noontime on Wednesday of spring break; and the other party to begin visitation at noontime on Wednesday of spring break until 6pm the evening prior to school resuming.

The noncustodial parent shall enjoy six (6) weeks of summer visitation time with the child(ren). Said visitation time may be exercised in a single time frame, or in several shorter time frames, although it is strongly suggested that said time occur in several increments whenever possible, especially with younger children. Said noncustodial parent shall provide 30 days' notice as to the beginning and ending date(s) of said visitation time(s). During said visitation period(s), the custodial parent shall enjoy the weekend, weekday and telephone visitation times ordinarily afforded the noncustodial parent.

(a) Should summer school be necessary for the child(ren) to pass to the next grade, both parents shall meet said requirement with respect to the child(ren)'s educational needs, regardless of the home in which the child is resident at that time;

(b) Should the child(ren) have summer obligations with respect to extracurricular activities, both parents shall assist the child(ren) in meeting said obligations.

9. General Provisions: The following provisions apply at all times to the parties:

(a) Both parents have the right to participate in all school and extracurricular activities. The custodial parent shall provide a copy of all activities, calendars, schedules etc for the child(ren) to the noncustodial parent within seven (7) days of receiving the same.

(b) Neither parent is to send messages of any sort for the other parent via the child(ren).

(c) Each parent is always the first choice as babysitter/caregiver for the child(ren).

(d) A general itinerary shall be provided for the other parent should either parent vacation with the child(ren) out of town.

(e) The party receiving the child shall be responsible for transportation (i.e., noncustodial parent shall pick up the child(ren) on Friday evening and custodial parent shall pick up the children on Sunday evening).
