JUDGE KAROL J. KEMP
EXHIBIT "B" OUT OF TOWN PARENTING SCHEDULE

If either party lives or moves out of state or outside a 200-mile radius of the other, the Non-Residential and/or Non-Custodial Parent shall have the following parenting time:

A. From one week after school recesses for the summer to one week before school begins in the fall. This shall include the 4th of July, unless this is during the two-week parenting time of the custodial parent. The Custodial Parent shall be entitled to two full weeks of parenting time during this period which may be taken consecutively or non-consecutively and shall notify the other parent regarding the dates of said parenting time on or before the date that school is released.

B. Holidays: In the odd-numbered years, non-custodial/non- residential parent shall have:

(1) spring break holidays from 12:00 noon on Saturday after school is recessed until 4:00 p.m. on Sunday before school resumes;

(2) the weekend including the Memorial Day holiday and the Labor Day holiday, from Friday after school recesses until Monday at 4:00 p.m.;

(3) on the day school is dismissed for the Christmas vacation to 4:00 p.m. on December 27th.

In even-numbered years, the non-custodial/non-residential parent shall have:

(1) fall break holidays (if there is a fall break) from the afternoon school recesses until 4:00 p.m. on Sunday before school resumes;

(2) Easter weekend, from Thursday after school recesses until Monday at 4:00 p.m.

(3) Thanksgiving weekend, from Wednesday after school recesses until Sunday at 4:00 p.m.

(4) December 27th at 4:00 p.m. until January 1st at 4:00 p.m.

The custodial/residential parent shall have all other holidays and times not addressed above, unless otherwise agreed upon by the parties.

C. Any other reasonable time the Non-Residential/Non-Custodial Parent is in the town in which the minor child(ren) reside. The Non-Residential/Non-Custodial Parent shall give 48 hours advance notice, and the visit should be no longer than 48 hours in duration unless otherwise agreed by the parties.

D. Expenses of travel shall be borne: ( ) by the party that lives outside of Baldwin County; ( ) by the party that resides in Baldwin County; ( ) by both parties equally; ( ) each party to bear their own costs of travel, as the parties shall meet at a midpoint for exchange of the child(ren), to-wit:_____.

E. The Non-Custodial Parent shall have access to all medical, school, and/or other official records or documentation, including report cards, and other documents relating to health, education and welfare of the children. The Non-Custodial Parent shall have the right to discuss the child(ren)'s medical conditions with the child(ren)'s doctors and shall have the right to participate in school activities of the child(ren), and to discuss the child(ren)'s progress in school with the child(ren)'s teachers. Each parent shall keep the other informed as to any significant illness or injury sustained by the child(ren) and shall notify the other as soon as possible if any child is admitted to the hospital, receives emergency treatment, or is scheduled for surgery. Each parent shall be kept reasonably informed as to the location of the child(ren), including plans for extended trips outside of the State.

F. The child(ren) shall be kept generally available for teleconference communication at all reasonable times, in particular, on special occasions, such as birthdays. If a conflict develops regarding phone time, it shall be alternating nights between 6 p.m. and 7:30 p.m. The contact shall be reasonable in length and shall take into consideration the child's age and schedule.

G. Recognizing that conflict between parents is detrimental to the child(ren), each parent shall support and encourage the relationship of the other parent with the child(ren). Neither parent shall criticize the other nor undercut or call into question the parental authority of the other. Each parent shall use his or her best efforts to support and coordinate mutual policies on discipline, personal habits, and other matters involving the child(ren). Each parent shall insure to the fullest extent possible that his or her home environment provides a consistent and healthy site for raising the child(ren).

H. Both parents shall discuss and consider the wishes of the other parent in all major decisions to be made regarding the minor children, including but not limited to medical, dental, religious, educational, and recreational activities.

I. Both parents shall encourage the minor children to love, respect and honor the other parent. Neither of them shall alienate or attempt to alienate or diminish the affection of the minor children for the other parent or disparage or allow others to disparage the other parent to or in the presence of the minor children.

J. The households of both parties shall be maintained in a safe, wholesome and proper moral atmosphere whenever the minor child is present. No one shall abuse alcohol or legal drugs or use illegal drugs in the presence of the minor children.

K. At all times hereafter, each parent shall keep the other informed of their respective telephone numbers and their respective street and mailing addresses.

L. Both parties will make themselves available for direct communications with the other for purposes of discussion pertaining to the minor children; provided, however, neither parent will harass or burden the other with excessive or abusive telephone calls, or any other such non-productive communication.

M. The parties shall promptly notify each other in the event of serious injury to or illness of the minor children. If illness requires a doctor's or hospital visit, you must notify the other party immediately. The parties shall administer any and all physician-prescribed medications to the child in full accordance with the physician's instructions. All medicines should remain in original packaging.

N. Both parents have the right to participate in all school and extracurricular activities. The custodial parent shall provide a copy of all activities, calendars, schedules etc for the child(ren) to the noncustodial parent within seven (7) days of receiving the same.

O. Neither parent is to send messages of any sort for the other parent via the child(ren).
